

Using the fx-991CW for number and algebra

- 1 A factor is a term which exactly divides another term. (Fill in the blank)
- 2 Select the prime factors of 14. (Tick 2 correct answers)
☐ 1
☒ 2
☒ 7
☐ 14
- 3 A recurring decimal is one that has an infinite number of digits after the decimal point. (Fill in the blank)
- 4 An equation is used to show 2 expressions that are equal to each other. (Fill in the blank)
- 5 Equations which represent different relationships between the same variables are called simultaneous equations. (Fill in the blank)
- 6 An inequality is used to show that one expression may not be equal to another. (Fill in the blank)

