

Name: _____

Securing understanding of rounding

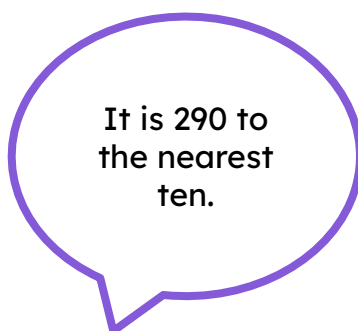

Task A: Unrounded numbers

1) Sofia is thinking of some numbers. She uses rounding to give two clues. After each clue, guess her number and write it down. Does your guess change each time?

a) Clue 1

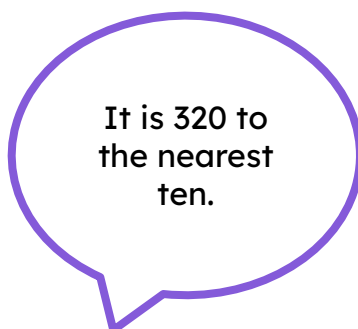

Clue 2

b) Clue 1

Clue 2

c) Clue 1

Clue 2

2) Jun's homework has been damaged by his dog!

His answers are still there but some of the numbers are missing from the questions. What could the missing numbers be?

- a) 331 to the nearest _____ is 300
- b) 478 to the nearest _____ is 0
- c) 1_____ to the nearest hundred is 1800
- d) 4995 to the nearest _____ is 5000
- e) _____7 to the nearest ten is 400

3) a) Are these statements always, sometimes or never true?

A number rounded to the nearest 10 will have two digits.

A number rounded to the nearest 10 will end in one zero.

A number rounded to the nearest 10 will be less than 5 away from the original number.

b) Give some examples to show why.

Task B: Degrees of accuracy

1) Match each statement to the most appropriate degree of accuracy:

The number of sweets in a bag

Nearest million

The population of the UK

Nearest hundred

The number of people at a national sporting event

Nearest ten

Cost of a holiday

Nearest thousand

2) Match each statement to the most appropriate degree of accuracy:

Length of a pencil in centimetres

Nearest integer

The length of a piece of ribbon in metres

1 decimal place

Width of a doorway in metres

2 decimal places

Capacity of a mug in millilitres

3 decimal places

3) Answer the following, making sure that you carefully consider the appropriate degree of accuracy.

- a) Izzy collects 100 eggs. Boxes hold 6 eggs. How many boxes does Izzy need for all her eggs?
- b) Jun decides to share his bag of 200 sweets with Sofia and Sam. They each get the same number of sweets. How many do they each get?
- c) Aisha has baked 150 cookies for the school fete. She is putting them into boxes of 4. How many boxes can Aisha make?
- d) A group of 56 scouts are going on a camping trip. Each tent sleeps 6. How many tents are needed for the scouts?