

Name: _____

Exit quiz

Constructing scatter graphs by utilising technology

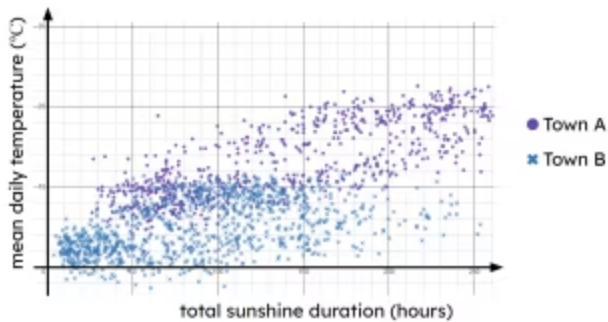

- 1 Google Sheets and Microsoft Excel are examples of _____ software. Fill in the blank
- 2 Which is a correct description for a scatter graph? Tick 1 correct answer
- ☐ A circular graph where sectors represent different groups proportionally
 - ☐ A graph consisting of bars to representing the frequency of objects or groups
 - ☐ A graph consisting of pictures to represent the frequency of objects or groups
 - ☐ A graph consisting of two axes to visually represent bivariate data
- 3 Which keyboard short cut allows you to copy data that has been highlighted in a spreadsheet? Tick 1 correct answer
- ☐ ctrl + c
 - ☐ ctrl + v
 - ☐ shift + c
 - ☐ shift + v
- 4 When plotting a scatter graph on a spreadsheet, what do you need to select to edit the vertical axis? Tick 1 correct answer
- ☐ dependent
 - ☐ series
 - ☐ x-axis
 - ☐ y-axis

5 What steps do you need to take to plot a scatter graph in Desmos, after you have inputted a set of bivariate data? Tick 1 correct answer

- ☐ Click on 'insert' on the ribbon menu and then select 'chart'.
- ☐ Nothing - Desmos will plot a scatter graph automatically.
- ☐ Right click on the workspace and select 'insert graph'.
- ☐ Type 'scatterplot' into the next empty cell and then select your data.

6 Look at the scatter graph. Which of the two towns tends to be warmer? Tick 1 correct answer

- ☐ Town A
- ☐ Town B

