

Statistical problems - data collection

1 Which tool could be used to collect data about how satisfied customers are after using their business? Tick 1 correct answer

☐ measuring tape

☒ questionnaire

☐ timer

☐ weighing scales

2 Which tool could you use to collect data about the frequencies of different species of birds that land in a garden? Tick 1 correct answer

☐ interview

☐ questionnaire

☒ tally chart

☐ timer

3 Which word describes the entire set of people, creatures, plants or items that make up the whole group that is being studied in a data investigation? Tick 1 correct answer

☐ bias

☐ method

☒ population

☐ sample

4 A sample is a subset of the population of a data investigation. Fill in the blank

5 Alex wants to investigate how much time 16 year-old pupils in the UK spend doing homework per week. What is the population in Alex's investigation? Tick 1 correct answer

- ☐ all school pupils in the UK
- ☒ all 16 year-old school pupils in the UK
- ☐ all pupils in Alex's school
- ☐ all 16 year-old pupils in Alex's school

6 Laura wants to investigate how much time pupils in her school spend watching cartoons per week. Which of these samples would be the most representative of the population in Laura's investigation? Tick 1 correct answer

- ☐ 20 people in the oldest year group
- ☐ 20 people in the middle year group
- ☐ 10 people from the oldest year group and 10 people from the youngest year group
- ☒ 4 people from each of the 5 year groups in the school

