

Name: _____

Exit quiz

Understanding and calculating the range

1 The range is a measure of spread. It is found by finding the _____ between the two extreme points; the lowest and highest values. Fill in the blank

2 Select the data sets where you can calculate a range. Tick 3 correct answers

☐ 4, 7, 5, 8, 3, 1, 0

☐ cat, dog, rabbit, dog, cat, rabbit, hamster

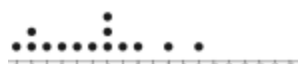

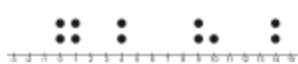

☐ -4, -2, -5, -1, 0, -7

☐ 5, 5, 5, 5, 5, 5, 5, 5, 5

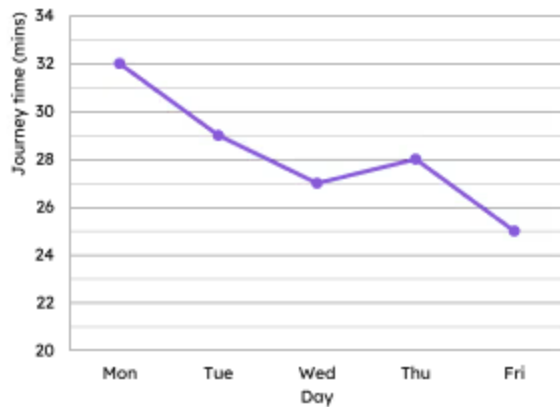

☐ ash, birch, oak, maple, sycamore, oak

3 A large data set has the extreme values of 24.6 and 59.2. The range of the data set is _____. Fill in the blank

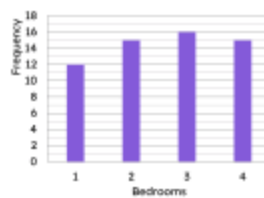

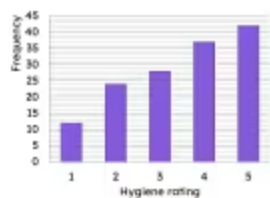

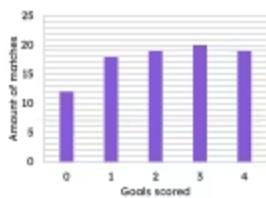

4 Which of these dot plots is most varied? Tick 1 correct answer

☐☐☐

- 5 This line graph shows data about journey times to school over a week. The range of the journey times is _____ minutes. Fill in the blank

- 6 Which of these bar charts show data with a range of 4? Tick 2 correct answers

☐
☐
☐
