

Name: _____

Exit quiz

Listing multiples

1 Complete the statement. A common multiple is _____. Tick 1 correct answer

- ☐ a number that is a multiple of two or more numbers
- ☐ a number which is a factor of two or more numbers
- ☐ always even
- ☐ always odd

2 Match each number with its first five multiples. Write the correct letter in each box

a	First five multiples of 5:
b	First five multiples of 10:
c	First five multiples of 12:
d	First five multiples of 2:

	5, 10, 15, 20, 25
	12, 24, 36, 48, 60
	10, 20, 30, 40, 50
	2, 4, 6, 8, 10

3 Identify the common multiples of 3 and 5 Tick 1 correct answer

- ☐ There are no common multiples of 3 and 5.
- ☐ 1, 3, 5, 10...
- ☐ 3, 5, 6, 10, 12, 15,
- ☐ 15, 30, 45, 60,

4 Identify the common multiples of 2, 5, and 8. Tick 1 correct answer

☐ 1, 2, 4, 5, 10

☐ 2, 4, 5, 8, 10, 12,

☐ 40, 80, 120, 160,

☐ There are no common multiples of 2, 5 and 8

5 Jacob started listing the first five multiples of a number. He then spilled ink all over his work. Find the number Jacob was listing the multiples for. _____ Fill in the blank

First five multiples of _____ : _____, _____, _____, 1234, _____, 2065, ...

6 Starting with the largest, sort these fractions into order of size. Use a common denominator to help you. Use numbers to show the correct order

	$\frac{11}{30}$
	$\frac{1}{2}$
	$\frac{1}{3}$
	$\frac{4}{5}$

