

Introduction to translation

1 Translation is a transformation in which every point of a shape moves the same distance in the same direction. Fill in the blank

2 Which of these images show a translation? Tick 2 correct answers

3 Match the shapes to their translated image. Write the correct letter in each box

a	A b	B
c	D
d	G

c	F
b	C
a	E
d	H

4 The only property of a shape that does change in a translation is position . Fill in the blank

5 Which point, when connected with the given two vertices, would create a congruent shape to the object? [IMG 7.10.2.e5] Fill in the blank

A

6 Which of the figures matches Jacob's description? Tick 1 correct answer

The image is congruent to the object. Its position and orientation has changed. It is mirrored.

☐

☒

☐
