

Describing a translation

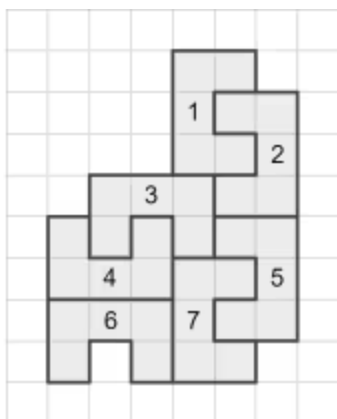

1 Translation is a transformation in which every point of a shape moves the same distance in the same direction. Fill in the blank

2 Which of these images do not show a translation? Tick 2 correct answers

☐

☒

☒

☐

3 Which one of the following shapes cannot be translated onto one of the other shapes? [IMG 7.10.3.s3] Fill in the blank

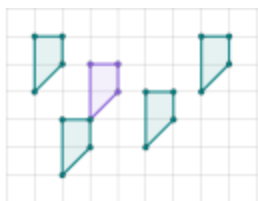

4

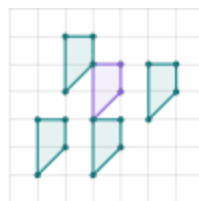

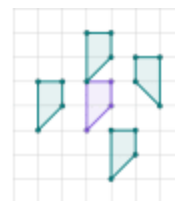

4 When a translation takes place, the invariant properties of a shape are Tick 3 correct answers

- ☐ position
- ☒ lengths
- ☒ angles
- ☒ orientation

5 Which of these contains a non-translated shape? Tick 1 correct answer

☐

☐

☐

☒

6 Which of the figures matches Alex's description? Tick 1 correct answer

Alex

The image is congruent to the object. Its position and orientation has changed. It isn't mirrored.

☒

☐

☐
