

Problem solving with fractions and ratios

- 1 Fill in the missing word: Variables are in proportion if they have a constant multiplicative relationship. Fill in the blank
- 2 Select the bar model that is correctly labelled to solve this problem: Sam and Jacob share some stickers in the ratio of 3 : 7. Sam get 168 less than Jacob. How many stickers does Sam get? Tick 1 correct answer

- 3 Sam and Jacob share some stickers in the ratio of 3 : 7. Sam get 168 less than Jacob. How many stickers does Sam get? Fill in the blank

126

- 4 The ratio of children to adults in a club is 2 : 3. If there are 26 children, how many are in the club in total? Fill in the blank

65

- 5 A bag contains red, green and yellow sweets. $\frac{1}{4}$ of them are red. The rest of the sweets are either green or yellow, in the ratio 4 : 5. There are 72 sweets in the bag. How many are yellow? Fill in the blank

30

- 6 Andeep's older sister Belle is 3 times his age. His brother Charlie is $\frac{5}{6}$ of Belle's age. The total of Andeep's and Belle's ages is 48. How old is Charlie? Fill in the blank

30

